The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL www.criminaljustice.ny.gov/SomsSUBDirectory/search_index.jsp. The page features the New York State logo and navigation links for Services, News, and Government. Below this is a dark blue header for the Division of Criminal Justice Services, with sub-links for Sex Offenders, Missing Persons, Community Resources, and Law Enforcement. The main content area is titled "Search Public Registry of Sex Offenders" with a dropdown arrow. It prompts the user to "Choose ONE Field to Search the Subdirectory by:" and provides three input options: "Last Name" (text box), "County" (dropdown menu with "Oneida" selected), and "Zip Code" (text box). Below these are checkboxes to "exclude one or more of the following from your search": "Incarcerated", "ICE Custody", and "In Custody". A CAPTCHA notice at the bottom states: "Before searching this online directory, please enter the word(s) or number(s) exactly as shown in the CAPTCHA box below. This security measure helps us ensure that people, not robots or automated programs, are searching the site."

Everyone confined in state prison since the early 1970s is listed in the database, except youthful offenders, those who have had their convictions set aside by a court, and certain previously incarcerated non-violent offenders who are covered by a special provision codified in Correction Law §9, which took effect in 2010
